1965 KENSTONIAN

Kenston High
Chagrin Falls, Ohio

Kenston has spirit. A spirit which is growing greater each year. The '64-'65 school year has been a great boost to our spirit. A large edition to our school has increased its facilities and our entrance into the newly-formed Chagrin Valley Athletic Conference has encouraged more interest in our sports program. If future student bodies are willing to work hard for their school, Kenston can have all that it sets out to achieve. The 1965 Kenstonian is dedicated to the spirit of our school with hope that it always thrives.

This year's seniors think that their class of '65 is pretty great. Well, its only natural for a class to have pride, but in the case of this class it is especially justified. They have always been an energetic, fun-loving group with the best interest of their school in mind. A class with an above number of scholars and athletes, they have set an excellent example for their underclassmen. They're proud of their many accomplishments and contributions to the school. More a class of leaders than followers, future senior classes will find it difficult to emulate this class's academic and athletic leadership.

The greatest asset of this class is their school spirit above all else. They have great faith in Kenston's future. Having experienced the growing pains of this school and suffered with it when it has been under fire, it is aware of its past weaknesses, but more significant of its bright future.

We look for great things from this class as a loyal alumni.

Maryflor Weber, an energetic, charming girl from the country of Luxemborg, was Kenston's American Field Service student this year. Her academic achievement and extracurricular activities testify to her determination to represent her country well and to learn as much as possible about America. Maryflor's American family, the Robert Garners of Valley Drive, found her to be a welcome addition to their family. Rather timid at first she quickly became accustomed to her new surroundings and an ebullient member of the Towncriers, Girl's Basketball, Pep Club, and other clubs. Her eagerness and vitality has permanently endeared her to us all.

Dr. Gregg

Dr. Gregg's first year as Superintendent of Kenston schools has been a rewarding one. His amiable personality has led to a close and profitable relationship between himself and the Kenston community. The Kenstonian extends a warm welcome to Dr. Gregg and hopes he will be with us for a long time.

Successfully guiding Kenston's future, the School Board never ceases to seek new and better ideas and programs which will improve our fine school system. To them we owe our deep gratitude.

Kenston's School Board

Kenston's strong silent type, Mr. Klaisner, admirably fills the position of Kenston High's principal. A tall man with high ideals, Mr. Klaisner's able guidance accounted for a large part of the success of this school year. This is only his third year with us; we all hope there will be many more.

No busy office could function without efficient office workers. Kenston is fortunate to have the dedicated team of Mrs. Bieger and Mrs. Mallett. What would we do without them?

Editing a Yearbook is like trying to put out a newspaper with no news; everything must be arranged and changed in order to give the impressions of newness and originality. That is the job of the yearbook staff. The yearbook staff also has to make money to publish the book, each year the cost of the yearbook is close to $2000.00. In addition to this the staff has to meet deadlines and straighten out last minute problems. This year the staff has worked hard to make a completely new book. Color has been used for this.

Senior Court

Junior Court

The 1965 Junior-Senior Prom was held at the Charter House, in Euclid. Reigning over the Dance were Queen Maryflor Weber and King Jack Rudnay. The affair started with daisy pins for the girls, then followed a buffet dinner. After dinner there was dancing, with music provided by Mr. Sisler and his band.
